“The Other” is a double-edged sword

Exhibition date : October 7th – October 23rd 2011

On the one hand it points towards our uniqueness as individuals, the differences that keep us apart, the inherent loneliness of the human condition. On the other, it draws us closer through a better understanding of what we have in common, the universal journey of Everyman, the qualities that bring us together.

Bringing us together is exactly what Katya Traboulsi has done.

By inviting 74 international authors, celebrities, business leaders, thinkers and journalists to write on the theme of “The Other”, and creating 74 artworks inspired by their words, she has succeeded in uniting 2 distinct art forms: writing and painting. Now, her visual interpretations of the texts are translated in 2 formats. Original paintings on canvas, and a book comprising the original texts and artworks.

Painting exhibition from October 7th until October 23rd 2011, from 4 to 10 pm – “The Venue” in Beirut Souks – Solidere.
